Here I've been tapping outside to you.— Why don't you come if you're there! 'our sentites are simil or Pd dash right in And stream down the attic stair.

Fre washed the windows, Free spattered the blinds, And that is not half Free done; bounced on the steps and side-stalks too, Till I made the good people run.

I've sprinkled the plant on your window-sill, So drooping and was that looks; he dusty gutters, I've alled them up Till they flow like running brooks.

For there in glory am I; The mendows I've rwelled, and watered the corn, And floated the fields of rye.
